

Extra Credit #6: Ona.. mota.. what?

Remember in 5th grade English class when the teacher taught you what the word "onomatopoeia" meant? We didn't think so. Let us refresh your memories. Onomatopoeia is a big word that means the formation or use of a word that can imitate a sound associated with the action that it refers to. For example: "buzz" or "bang"

List as many onomatopoetic words as you can think of! You can definitely think of ten!!!
